

Wedding Information

Each wedding at the Sterling Renaissance Festival is unique and the possibilities are endless! Whether you prefer it be large or small, your wedding will be effortless and provide fond memories for you and your guests.

The Wedding Chapel, which has an authentic thatched roof, faces the Sterling Creek and provides a picturesque outdoor setting in which to exchange your vows.

If you so desire, a private reception in the festival pavilion provides that special place for you and your guests to celebrate your union, drink, and be merry!

Let us not forget...this is just the beginning! You and your guests can spend the remainder of the day enjoying the many amusements the Festival has to offer!
